10. Debates, Amendments and Decisions

The Governing Board has established the following procedures:

- All decisions are confirmed by a simple majority vote of those in favour or of those opposed (abstentions do not count toward the determination of the vote). In the case of a tie, the Chair will cast a second and deciding vote. An item to be voted on must be formulated as a motion or presented as a resolution, and should be seconded. Time for discussion of the motion must occur before the vote is taken. The Governing Board may form subcommittees to study specific issues and/or draft proposals.
- The decisions of the Governing Board are taken by resolutions moved by members and adopted by a majority of the votes cast by the members present and entitled to vote. The motions need to be seconded.

- If votes are equally divided, the Chair has a casting vote.
- An amendment is a change in a motion.
- Any member may propose an amendment to a motion, by deleting, adding or replacing words.
- Every amendment must be moved, discussed and voted on before the discussion on the motion can be resumed.
- When discussion seems to have ended, the Chair asks if the members are ready to vote.
 If there are no valid objections, the Chair or the secretary reads the motion again and invites the members to vote. Usually the members vote by a show of hands, unless a secret ballot has been required.
- The Chair announces the result of the vote and the secretary records it in the minutes. If votes are equally divided, the Chair has a casting vote.

Once a meeting is adjourned, no decision can be taken and the meeting cannot be reopened. 15 minutes prior to the end of the meeting, we will have a vote to decide if we continue or adjourn and discuss the remainder of the items at the next meeting.

The Governing Board may suspend its meeting and resume it at another time on the same date or adjourn it and determine another day and time to resume debate. The secretary advises absent members via email or text message that the meeting is adjourned.
